

ATTENTION MUSICIANS

BART INVITES YOU TO BACH IN THE SUBWAYS ON MARCH 22.

BART, in collaboration with Bach in the Subways (BitS), invites local musicians to join the worldwide celebration of Johann Sebastian Bach's birthday (March 21, 1685).

Enliven the Friday commute, 4:30 -7 p.m. with music of JS Bach and your instrument of choice. How many stations can resonate with the music of Bach?

Requirements

- While performing display a sign with the Bach in the Subways graphic to indicate your participation (please do not affix any signs to our walls). Graphics for the event can be found here: <https://bachinthesubways.org/contact-resources/>
- Please no tips allowed while you are a Bach in the Subways participant
- No amplified music
- Non-paid areas of stations only. Avoid interfering with the direct flow of customers in/out of station, ticket vending machines, etc.
- Guidelines from BitS <https://bachinthesubways.org/guidelines/>

How to Participate

- Sign-up for your station at <https://bachinthesubways.org/register-a-performance/>
- Email your selected station and request for Expressive Activity Permit to FreeSpeech@bart.gov to obtain a required permit. Make sure to have it with you when performing.
- Show up to your station on March 22, any time during 4:30-7 p.m.
 - Suggested minimum 30 minute performance
 - If multiple musicians at the same station, please share the stage or station
 - Play Bach! Tag photos with #sfbart
